Application Deadline: January 14, 2021
Three scholarship programs: Type 1, Type 2 and Type 7. All offer varying financial support.

TYPE 1
Pays full (100 percent) college tuition and authorized fees at any public or private institution with an Air Force ROTC detachment. Type 1 selectees will also receive a monthly living expense stipend and an annual book stipend.
TYPE 2
Pays up to $18,000 per year in college tuition and authorized fees at any public or private institution with an Air Force ROTC detachment. Scholarship payment is further capped at $9,000 per semester or $6,000 per quarter. Type 2 selectees will also receive a monthly living expense stipend and an annual book stipend.
TYPE 7
Pays full (100 percent) college tuition and authorized fees (capped at the in-state tuition rate) at a public institution with an Air Force ROTC detachment. Type 7 selectees will also receive a monthly living expense stipend and an annual book stipend. Students offered a Type 7 scholarship will be given the option to convert their scholarship to a three-year Type 2 scholarship that can be used at out-of-state or private schools. A three-year Type 2 scholarship will start during the sophomore year of school.

Note: AFROTC Scholarships do not cover room and board.

Requirements:

- Applicant should have a SAT of 1240 or ACT of 26 – Only accepted electronically now
- Applicant should have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Applicant must complete a Physical Fitness Assessment (PFA) and submit the Letter of Certification in order to be eligible for scholarship interview.
- Once you meet the academic and fitness requirements, you will then be scheduled for an interview with a local Air Force unit.

To be eligible for the scholarship interview, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be a United States citizen or be able to obtain citizenship by the last day of the first term of your freshman year (for four-year offers) or the first term of your sophomore year (for three-year offers). Activation cannot occur prior to obtaining citizenship. Also, if you receive a scholarship and possess dual citizenship, you cannot activate a scholarship or be contracted until you renounce your non-U.S. citizenship.
- Graduate from a high school or have an equivalent certificate.
- Be 17 years old prior to scholarship activation.
- Be under 31 years old as of December 31 of the year you will be commissioned.
- You cannot be enrolled full time at a college or university (except for joint high school/college programs).
- If you are the sole provider for another person (e.g., single parent, guardian for younger sibling, etc.), please contact the nearest Air Force ROTC detachment admissions representative for dependent care plan information.

SERVICE OBLIGATION
You're under no obligation by simply applying for an Air Force ROTC scholarship. However, if you are awarded a scholarship, you become obligated when you accept and sign an agreement with the United States Air Force.
If you are under legal age in the state where the school is located, your parent or legal guardian must sign this agreement.

YOU WILL AGREE TO:

- Enroll in the academic major for which the scholarship is offered.
- Enroll in Air Force ROTC beginning with the upcoming fall term.
- Complete a 13-day summer field training course at Maxwell AFB, Alabama, between sophomore and junior years.
- Complete Air Force ROTC General Military Course (GMC) your freshman and sophomore years and the Professional Officer Course (POC) your junior and senior years.
- Accept a commission as an Air Force officer and serve at least four years on active duty.

ARMY ROTC SCHOLARSHIPS
Whether you're a college-bound high school student or already attending a college or university, Army ROTC has scholarships available. Scholarships are awarded based on a student's merit and grades, not financial need.
Army ROTC scholarships consist of:

- Two-, three-, and four-year scholarship options based on the time remaining to complete your degree
- Full-tuition scholarships
- The option for room and board in place of tuition, if you should qualify
- Additional allowances for books and fees

LIVING EXPENSES
Army ROTC scholarships also provide a $420 per month living allowance for each school year. Non-scholarship Cadets in ROTC advanced courses (3rd and 4th year) also receive this allowance.

If you are applying for a scholarship, you first will need to create a MY GOARMY account. Once you create an account, you will be sent to the MY GOARMY Log In page. Once you can successfully login to MY GOARMY, you can use your newly created account information to login to the scholarship application site.
