These IB Courses are offered as one year at the end of which students take the SL Exam

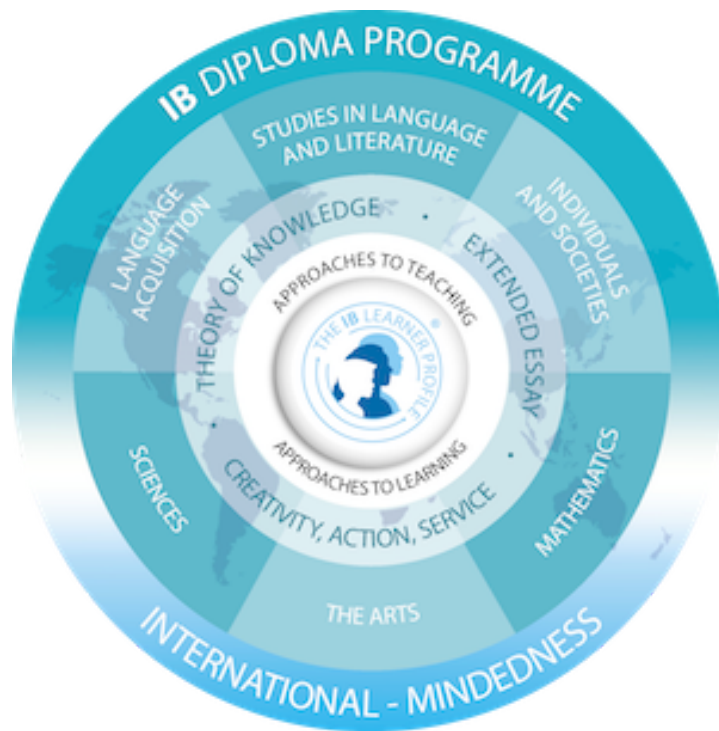

Some International Baccalaureate terms to know at GCM...

Courses candidate: a student taking one or more IB subjects on an individual basis; not required to take the TOK course, perform CAS or write the Extended Essay

Diploma candidate: a student taking six IB subjects, one from each point on the IB hexagon, plus the Theory of Knowledge course, CAS project and Extended Essay

HL or Higher Level: an exam taken at the end of the senior year following a minimum of 240 hours of IB classroom instruction during the final two years of high school. (Note: the 240 hours does not include preparatory work done prior to grade 11.)

SL or Standard Level: an exam taken at the end of either the junior or senior year following a minimum of 150 hours of IB classroom study (one or two years)

CAS: the Creativity/Activity/Service component of the IB Diploma program – on-going, meaningful experiences/projects during grades 11 and 12

TOK: the Theory of Knowledge course; required of all Diploma Candidates. At Marshall, this class is taken during the 2nd semester of the 11th grade year and the 1st semester of the 12th grade year

Extended Essay: an independent research and inquiry essay of 3,500 – 4,000 words prepared during the second half of grade 11 and first half of grade 12. It is required of Diploma Candidates and normally based upon one of the IB courses being studied
